

Research
2019

Social
Innovation
Monitor

FULL REPORT ON INCUBATORS AND ACCELERATORS IN GERMANY

TABLE OF CONTENTS

1. Description of the Reports on incubators/accelerators
2. Introduction
3. The research
 - 3.1 Methodology
 - 3.1.1 Data overview
 - 3.1.2 Main definitions (Incubator, Organisation with significant social or environmental impact, University Incubator, Corporate Incubator)

3.2 Geographical distribution of incubators/accelerators

3.2.1 Population and sample analysis

3.2.2 Geographical distribution of incubators

3.2.3 Legal nature of incubators and types of incubators (Business, Mixed and Social)

3.2.4 Year of foundation and number of Employees

3.2.5 Square metres available for the incubation activities

3.2.6 Sector of specialization

3.2.7 Number of applications and organisations supported

3.3 Analysis of services provided and performances of incubators/accelerators

3.3.1 Services provided by incubators

3.3.2 Type of organisation incubated and conditions for access to incubation programs

3.3.3 Incubators that hold equity shares in organisations incubated

3.3.4 Break down of incubators' operating costs and revenue

3.3.5 Sectors in which the incubated organisations with significant social or environmental impact operate

3.3.6 Metrics or criteria for evaluating the social impact solutions

3.3.7 Selection process and average incubation time

3.3.8 Number of collaborations with investors and corporations by formal agreement

Social
Innovation
Monitor

This research was carried out by the research team Social Innovation Monitor (SIM), based at Politecnico di Torino university, with the support of German Startups Association, Experientia, Instilla and Social Innovation Teams (SIT).

Social Innovation Monitor (SIM)

Research, projects and reports on entrepreneurship and innovation, with a focus on social and environmental impacts

Contacts: sim@polito.it

www.socialinnovationmonitor.com